STUDENT NOTIFICATION

Dear Student,

The admission cycle for various undergraduate and postgraduate courses has started for the upcoming academic session. As part of our commitment to inclusivity and support for orphaned children, we bring to your attention an important initiative regarding the allocation of two supernumerary seats (one male and one female) in each academic programme at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels for orphan children at the University of Delhi.

These seats are specifically reserved for orphan children, irrespective of their living circumstances - whether they reside independently, with relatives, extended families, or in Child Care Institutions (CCIs). This initiative presents an invaluable opportunity for orphan students who aspire to pursue higher education.

We urge all eligible students to take advantage of this admission opportunity. Further, all bonafide students should spread the word within their communities. By doing so, we can ensure that deserving candidates are aware of and benefit from this initiative.
