NOTICE

This is for the information of the general public, particularly individuals and groups associated with filmmaking who approach the College for the purpose of shooting at the campus, that extensive reconstruction and repair works are currently underway on the campus.

These ongoing works require complete focus and coordination, and any kind of disturbance may hinder their timely and effective execution.

In view of the above, the College is not in a position to grant permission for any kind of shooting on the campus until further notice.

While we sincerely appreciate your interest in choosing our campus as a shooting location, we regret the inconvenience caused and request your understanding in this regard.

The general public and members of the filmmaking community are requested to cooperate and refrain from making such requests during this period.
